In Loving Memory of Jeremie Mark Bergerson...

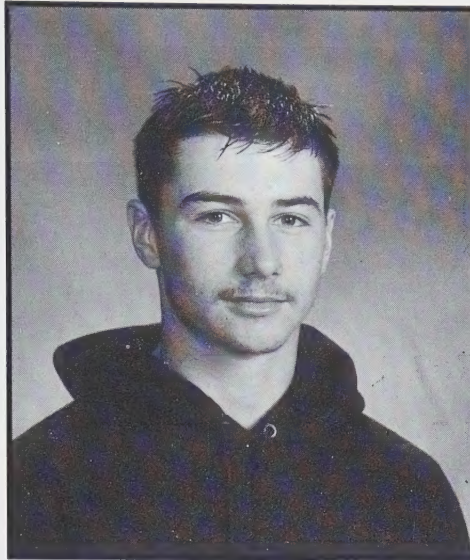

Jeremie

"Appointed by God"

Who may ascend into the hill of the Lord?...

He who has clean hands and a pure heart,...

-Psalm 24: 3,4

I've seen him dance
I watched him grow
a healthy lad
It makes me sad
to think of all the times
both good and bad.
That precious son
so sensitive and loving so full of life
when we still needed him so.
Now I know how bad it can hurt.
And now forever is what I want.

With love, Robin Bergerson

It is with great sadness that we all said good-bye to Jeremie Bergerson, a young man who will almost always carry a special place in our hearts. He will forever be part of our class, the class of 1997.

The following reflections were shared by some of Jeremie's classmates as time allows them to dwell on the fond memories.

No one will ever know Jeremie Bergerson like we did. We spent a lot of time together and shared many exciting adventures. Mike never got into mountain biking with us, but other than that, we were almost always together. Jeremie went to Simonsen's a lot. He loved to hang out, eat pizza and spend time with Mike. D.J. will always remember the trip to Monmouth with Jeremie where they did a lot of biking -- and falling.

Jeremie loved duck hunting and especially goose hunting. He also loved his music - he didn't just listen to it, he lived. It seemed like every second Jeremie was home, music was playing. We had a great time bowling together; we always wanted to be the best and I don't know how many times we left early because our bowling trip wasn't up to par.

Jeremie was thought of as a brother. He was always there if we needed him.

No one will ever know Jeremie like we did. It's going to be hard to never see his orange bus pull up and him getting out, grabbing his bike and taking off again.

What's important now is just to keep the good time rolling through are heads and never let the memories die.

Written by Mike Simonsen & D.J. Hoggard

A tree was planted on the senior lawn in memory of Jeremie.

...And be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ forgave you.

-Ephesians 4: 32

Cousin was the perfect kid
Mama said be more like him.
Kids at school could not accept that
He was teased and pushed around.
Stayed strong for about as long as he could.
But finally he gave in,

Turned his head
and went the other way,
and after he turned himself around,
they wanted him to come play.
He played the games they wanted him to.
He got more friends that way.
I ignored the change he made because I liked him either way.

The pressures of that life they got to him
he made one big mistake.
Opened his eyes completely that day and didn't like what he saw.
His family they all loved him
but that he could not see
He was all upset and in a rage
he had caught a bad disease
he left and made a bad mistake his family fell to their knees

We cried and wept a lot that day when we found out he was gone but I know we'll see him when it's our day and rejoice happily
But we'll miss him a lot until then when we're taken to our new home
I hooope it does happen because
I look forward to that day

Chorus:
We'll miss him
and we'll cry
We'll miss him
but we'll try to keep on living.

Chris Bergerson

"We started out the season with the same starting lineup as last year so we had an advantage over the other teams. All through the season we played great, and made it to Districts. Our best game was at Playoffs because everyone knew their position and played it well. My only regret is that we didn't beat Knappa."

FOOTBALL

This season was challenging for the players. They were frequently asked to learn new positions, as injuries affected our roster. They responded well to that, and they always seemed to handle the changes even better than the coaches expected. This made it fun to coach these guys."

WAKE UP AND WALK

Wake Up and Walk Day, has become a tradition during Homecoming here at WHS. It is a fun and exciting way to start Homecoming week. Wake Up and Walk Day is a good way to show our true selves. (Pajamas and no makeup, what a scary sight!) Anyway, Homecoming is a fun and entertaining week and we can't wait to see what happens.

To the right: Looks like the Seniors are screaming their way to victory. Well, after four years of experience it shouldn't take much to show who's number one.

Mr. Porter

Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.
Mr. McBride

Today is Tuesday October 14, 1996. It's the second day of WHS Homecoming week. The theme for today is Blast From The Past Day. Students showed up in everything from poodle skirts to bell bottoms. There were hippies, bradys, and girls strait out of the 80's. Unfortunately not one picture turned out. The yearbook decided to fill the space with interviews from real hippies who had actually been there and done that. (You guessed it, we had to settle for the teachers.) We got them to spill some advice and memorable quotes for our 1997 graduates, and future graduates in the years to come as well.

The two most important rules of life are;
LOVE & BALANCE
Mr. Ogren

"It's not dying a person should be afraid of, it's never having lived at all."
- Mr. Carrell

"Learning is a life long commitment...It doesn't stop when you graduate or take your last class. Knowledge and understanding are the keys to a successful future."
~ Mrs. Ayres

"Anyone can count the number of seeds in an apple, but only God can count the number of apples in a seed."

Mr. Mendes

Mark Twain said always do right, it will gratify some people, and astonish the rest.

"This would seem to me to be a worthwhile goal for anyone."
Mr. Wolfe

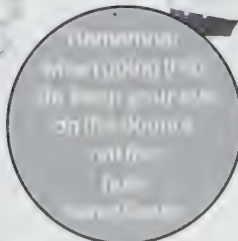

"YOU CAN ACHIEVE SUCCESS OR FAILURE TWO WAYS; GRADUALLY OR SUDDENLY. KNOW THE DIFFERENCE AND BE PREPARED."

MR. WARREN

"So What's your point?"
Ms. Tweed

"I have spent a lot of time trying to come up with a worthwhile quote. Something intelligent. Something witty. Something humorous. I can't. The only thing I can say is that teaching has brought me some of the best and happiest moments of my life. I hope that each and every one of you experience the same joy in your own lives. Never give up and never stop learning and challenging yourself!"

Ms. Ransom

"Being popular is an accident, being famous is at best at test, riches soon disappear, only one thing endures, character preserves it." Coach Mattila

CLASS UNITY

Above: A whole bunch of Freshman blocking the hallway. They are Peggy Boisvert, Ally Gramson, Dru Mickelson, Marah Ganaway, Brittney Manke, Shena Jaquez, and Courtney Gunther. But what's this? There is some one peeking up fom behind. Oh! It is Sammy Claterbos! She's just probably trying to get through the crowd.

To the middle left: The Sophomore class is taking part in the spirit competition, before they move on to the Junior Olympics. The group in the middle, yelling extra loud really helped out their class. You can tell by the expressions on their faces that they were full of spirit.

Below: is a picture of Kim Horn and Sam Bobek. Kim was the Director of Homecoming this year. Kim is doing one of her many jobs. This one is holding the microphone for the Seniors while they show their spirit. Looks like fun. Huh? Sam Bobek is trying to get the Seniors to yell even louder than they are. Can you hear them?

BOO-BOO TOURNAMENT

To the left: Russell Leavitt just spiked a ball over the net so hard the other team couldn't return the ball.

To the bottom left: It's one of the Senior teams, in the tournament. Their team was called SMACK. It consists of April Ager, Brian Maltman, Julianna Morris, and Daniel Sturgell. They did very well in this years Boo -Boo Tournament.

Below: Alex Cabalona and Matt Davis show off the beautiful outfits they put together for the Boo-Boo Tourney. Don't they look cute?

On Thursday October 17, 1996 the theme was Character Day. The students showed thier class spirit by dressing up as a character from a movie, a book, or T.V. As we near the end of the week, the competitive nature between the classes intensifies.

Today at the assembly the Sophomores dominated. They took first in the spirit competition and also won the dress-up competition for the best dressed boy & girl.

During the Jr. Olympics selected people, from each class took part in what looked like group necking (orange toss). The Sophomores won. The hickey-fest actually turned out to be a kinky and difficult game. Later that evening was supposed to be the annual bonfire. Unfortunately the bonfire was cancelled due to rain. What's new !!! Anyway, the day was very eventful and everyone had a blast.

SPIRIT DAY

As Homecoming week comes to an end, we have our traditional School Spirit Day. Almost everyone arrived in their best purple and white outfits, but we were sorry to know that next week we would have to resume our classes as usual. We made the best of the last day, and we all looked forward to tomorrow night's dance. Look at the Seniors on the right. Doesn't it look like they're having a great time?!? WHS just won't be the same without them!

Above: Josh Hemann and Nikki Haupt showing a little Freshman spirit. But one has to ask, "What are you looking at Nikki?"

Above: The Freshman girls look like something outrageous just happened. C'mon, you guys! Aren't you gonna let us in on the big secret? It must be juicy gossip!

Above: Sophomores scream their hearts out in the spirit competition. "Last in this century! First in line! We're the class of '99! GO SOPHOMORES!!"

"It was the most awesome thing I've ever seen! I saw scalpers. It was awesome,"

QUOTES:

Mr. Warren based his quote on his four year relationship with Daniel in and out of the classroom. "Daniel wasn't the strongest or the quickest wrestler we've had at Warrenton High. He did have one of the greatest levels of dedication we've ever had at Warrenton. If any Warrenton athlete wanted to learn how to win, all they had to do, was watch Dan at a practice not during the matches."

Daniel Sturgell based his quote on his four year relationship with Mr. Warren. "When I came out of 8th grade I was just like all the other 8th grade wrestlers. Warren picked out the problems and helps us overcome them. Sometimes he made it seem like he had no confidence in me or at least he didn't let on that he did. He made me beat the other guys, not so much to win, but to gain his confidence back in me."

Above: Be careful Nathan Baldwin don't have too much fun. Ouch that guy will be hurting tomorrow.

Above: Wesley Balensifer doing his best and keeping calm. Hey Wes! We didn't mean to calm! Wake up and get this guy!

Above: Dusty McGrorty's on a roll. He won his match gaining another win for Warrenton against Seaside!

ASSEMBLIES

We sure did have some great assemblies. This year we saw everything from the teachers doing the twist, to being serenaded by the Galaxy Air Force Band. We also had some assemblies that involved competing between all the classes. The groups were suppose to spin around with their foreheads touching a baseball bat. Grab a basketball and try to dribble down the length of the court and score an easy lay up. Sounds easy right? Why don't you try it some time.

Above: The Galaxy Air Force Band is singing to Troy Boy and the entire student body about staying in school.

Above: All right Jesse, two points! Are you going out for basketball?

Above: The teachers got their groove on showing us how it used to be done in the old days.

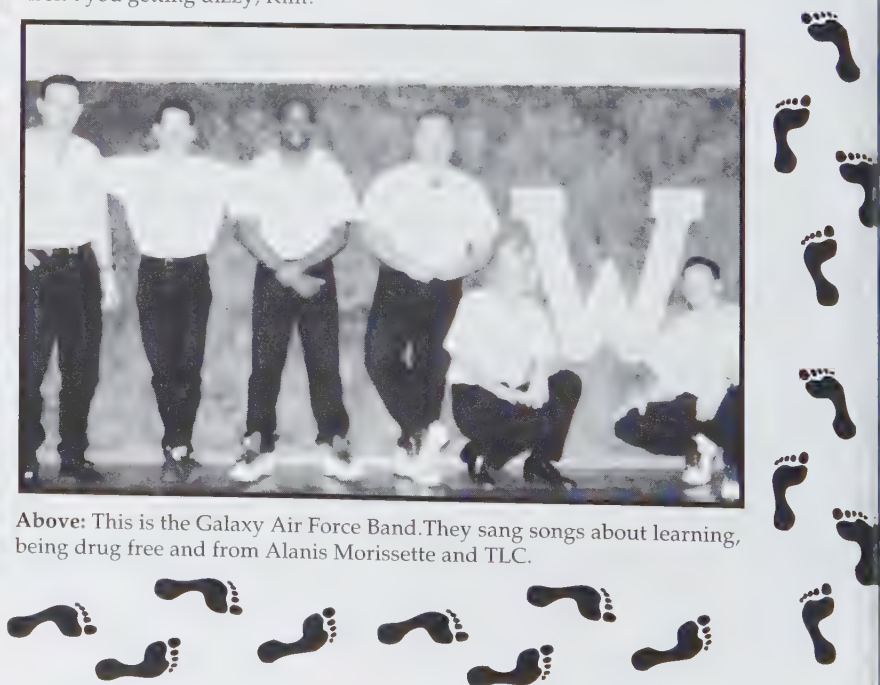

Above: Kim Strickland participates in the assembly by spinning around and around. Aren't you getting dizzy, Kim?

Above: Troy, I think you are enjoying that serenade little too much!

Above: This is the Galaxy Air Force Band. They sang songs about learning, being drug free and from Alanis Morissette and TLC.

DRIVERS EDUCATION

Above: Dayna Plummer is about to embark on a drive. It's sure to be a teeth-clenching adventure for Mr. Dickson and her fellow terror stricken passengers in the Driver's Ed. car. Your going to be late, and wouldn't that be a shocker?

CLASSIC MR. DICKSON JOKES

Above: Tim McDonald looks over his shoulder checking to make sure he won't run anyone over as he backs out of the parking lot. Unfortunately he is, being blinded by the flash backed out the wrong way! Oooops!

Drivers Education has been offered as part of the Warrenton High School curriculum for more than twenty years. Thanks to our very own teacher and coach Mr. Dickson! For most, Drivers Ed. is associated with the simulator, the drivers Ed. car and good old Mr. Dickson. For those who've driven with him, his coaching attitude and jokes automatically come to mind. In the classroom, who can forget the long drawn out stories he tells.

We think that Mr. Dickson deserves some recognition for his many services rendered. Do you know anyone that would watch the same movies four times a day, five days a week, for the last 20 school years? (Besides Mr. Warren!) Not only that he is really dedicated. For the past 20 year, he's been driving around with student drivers! If that isn't a health risk, then what is? It's a scary job, but some ones got to do it. He must like the challenge of teaching all those would be drivers out there, or at least try to teach them!

He has braves all this, to teach the future drivers of our community the fundamentals of good driving habits. In other words, we would like to commend him for sticking around long enough to make an impact on all his students. He is a great teacher. Mr. Dickson we'd just like to say THANK YOU for all your time and devotion to this program! No doubt the parents are also grateful.

QUIZ BOWL

Above: Mr. Porter seems to be looking a little over confident, or could be he just didn't want his picture taken? It is a good thing they won, starting to cop an attitude. As for Mike Shan won't he ever stop talking? Lily Higgins looks a bit out of it, hey where's Rannow?

Above: Quiet and don't shout out the answers! Ms. Whitney read the questions for the Sophomores and the Seniors. While Senor Dustin, Ms. Tweed, Mr. Mendes judged the responses.

This years Quiz Bowl teams...

Freshmen	Sophomores	Juniors	Seniors
Jeremiah Scott	Samantha Scott	Than Tussing	Jack McCarty
Peggy Boisvert	Dayna Plummer	Mike Shan	Dena Borders
Brian Bruney	Cris Boyer	Chris Bergerson	Charles Hansen
Jeff Doughty	Jayne Wilson	Drew Gramson	Elijah Gannaway
Amanda Plummer	Ryan Everson	Carole Chase	Justin Puckett
Larry Hoover	Tara Humphries	Alex Cabalona	Sam Bobek
	Jacoby Marshall	Mike Jorgenson	Nathan Miller
		Lily Higgins	Cris Haupt
Mr. Carrell	Mrs. Dick	Mr. Porter	Mr. Hackwith

Above: The 1997 senior team took second place. Jack and Dena do a curious reenactment of last years Quiz Bowl tradition.

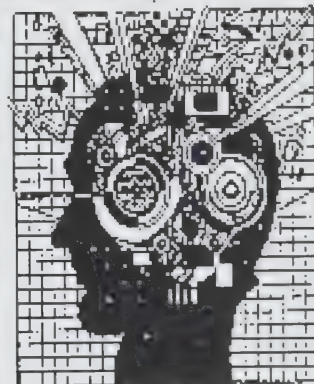

League Quiz Bowl was held at Warrenton High School this year, and our team won the league competition! Yes, that's right the Warrenton team reclaimed their trophy from Knappa. The entire student body had the privilege of watching their fellow classmates triumph in the final round against Knappa! It was a close call for the Warriors, but they pulled through, and answered the final question.

To the left: From left to right- This team of knowledge consisted of Than Tussing, Dena Borders, Jack Mcarty, Jeremiah Scott, Mike Shan, and Samantha Scott.

To the left: Lindsay Marvel does a fantastic job keeping score for the Quiz Bowl. Notice the scores. H m m m . . . Vernonia has 20 and Warrenton has a crushing 100. Way to go Warrenton.

To the right: Mrs Gach takes time out of her busy schedule to watch the Quiz Bowl. She even wore her favorite necklace.

BLOOD DRIVE

The annual Red Cross Blood Drive was held on February 25th and ran from 9:00-2:00 in the high school gym. Our goal this year was to get 40 units of blood and we ended up with 42! Anyone 17 or older can give as long as they weigh over 105 pounds. After the blood is drawn, it is taken to Portland to be tested and treated. Then it goes to local hospitals to help people in need. The 42 units we collected could help save at least 80 peoples' lives. None of this would have been possible with out the wonderful volunteers, the chairwoman, Sarah Oldridge and her co-chair, Kim Horn. Thank you to all the people who donated blood, we hope to see you again next year.

Above: Joel Wills and Jack McCarty strutt their stuff in front of the school to get people to stop and donate blood. Aren't they cute? They were just one of the crazy sets of blood drops that helped out this year. Are you boys illiterate? Those signs are upside down!

Below: These girls were the volunteers who helped put on the blood drive this year. Top Row: From Left to Right: April Ager, Sarah Oldridge, Lindsay Stewart, and Kim Horn. Bottom Row: From Left to Right: Tracy Nelson, Deborah Borders, and Julianna Morris.

Above: Robin Smith hates needles and started to get faint when she saw one. But she was brave and donated anyway. Thank you Robin! Middle Right: Nice expression Curtis, did it hurt that much? Quit being a chicken, be a man, it doesn't hurt at all!

TALENT SHOW

To the Right: Elijah and D.J. sang Homeward Bound. Anyone who was there would know that their voices really Harmonized.

To the Left: Rainee Comstock sang a song by a new artist, Lianne Rymes, Blue. She did a wonderful job, especially on those high notes.

Above: Alex did you get attacked by a dog? Who designed your wardrobe, Calven Klien?

Above: Tell me why, haven't I, heard from you? I don't know Dionne, why don't you tell us!?!

Above: April Shrode sings "The Sun will Come Out" not in Warrenton though.

SADIE HAWKINS

Sadie Hawkins was a time for girls to ask the man of their dreams to a night of western fun. It all started with Daisy Mae(Mindy Simonson) and Lil' Abner(Jeremie Bergerson) dancing to Garth Brooks. Then good ol' Mr. Carrell got all of us under aged chicks hitched. Sorry to say our parents weren't to thrilled!

97'

Below: Aaron and Allison sittin' in a tree, K-I-S-S-I-N-G, first come love, then comes marriage, then comes the baby in the baby carriage. Hey! Mr. Mattilla, what do you think of all this?

Below: Chris and Jeremie Bergerson make all of our dances interesting. One minute they are head banging and the next they are playing leap frog.

Above: A heel and a toe and a heel and a toe and a slide, slide, slide. These gals Omega Hudson and Jenny Miller know how to have fun.

Above: Stacey Johnson, Sherry Smith, Nikki Haupt and Apryl Shrode have new dance to show us, hey Apryl, what are you doing with all those freshmen

Above: Sky Keebler and Adam Hickocks dance by the cactus, watch out for those thorns, they hurt.

Above: Once again we see that dance, Jolee, is it fun to watch?

To the Left: Krystal Schneider needs to save her moves for the floor, is that why nobody dances?

To the Right: Who could guess that Dayna Plummer would get married so young. Does your mother approve of this?

School is tough, but you have to persevere through it to get a good education and a good job.~

BASEBALL

Below: The infielders; Mitch Johnson, Troy Bugaron, Brian Maltman, and Jason Elliot, huddle around the mound after Mr. Wolfe calls a time out to make a pitching change. Jon Elliot will be the relief pitcher.

Above: Jacob Allen gives one quick glance to the Neah Kah Nie base runner at first base moments before he throws him out attempting to steal second.

Left: Ryan Thebiay strides towards the plate to deliver a no count fastball. The outcome was, well you can figure it out.

John Elliot takes signs from catcher Jacob Allen before delivering a two and two count pitch.

Coach Wolfe takes a moment to welcome Neah Kah Nie's coach and the rest of the team before the game.

Troy Bugaran gets the steal sign from coach Wolfe then takes his lead off first and proceeds to get another one of his many steals.

SOFTBALL

This year's Softball team did extra good because they had their practice games all last season. This is the girls' second season playing for Warrenton High School. They are out to prove that they are not going to give up in their fight for the school to see that they are good enough and want to work hard for the schools support and funding. Again this year the girls had to earn money for equipment and to pay for the uniforms. They did this by running concession stands and letting Seaside use our gym for tournaments. They have done well and will continue doing well in the future. Way to go Lady Warriors!

To the Top Right: Jolee Sturgell seems to be having a little too much fun on the bench. You must be winning in order to have such high spirit, huh Jolee?

To the Left: Stephanie Moore why do you look so funny? Oh, you just got done pitching the ball. Wendy must think that you're a pretty good pitcher and is pretty confident of you because she isn't even getting ready for the ball. Wendy, what exactly are you doing?

Below : Kim Strickland, Jenny Forney, and Amanda Plummer are taking time to relax on the bench. Should we ask what positions they play? Oh, that's right they play the bench, all except Kim Strickland, she plays left out.

To the Left: Ally Gramson is getting ready for the ball. We all know that third base never gets any action so she might as well sit down, right Ally?

To the Left: Mindy Simonsen, our Varsity first baseman, just made a great catch to get the third out of the inning while we were playing against Knappa. She is one of the people that made their season a great one. Mindy was the only Senior on the team and helped get this second season molded for the years to come.

Directly Below: Stacey Hannah was the Softball team's coach this year. For only our second year she did a good job getting them going. Next year will be better so don't give up Stacey.

To the Right: Stacey Johnson, what a swing! That ball must have gone clear over the fence. Way To Go!

To the Left: Dionne Neahr takes time to pose for the camera while on first base. She had better watch out or she might get hit by the ball. She has that kind of luck.

To the Bottom: Allison Matilla comes home for a run for the home Warrenton Warriors. With her help we won this game. She helped out at short stop and did a really good job pitching for the Lady Warriors. Way To Go All!

To the Bottom Left: Rainie Comstock started out playing but could no longer, so she took up the job of score keeper. She did a good job and even dressed down to show her Warrior spirit. She was one of the many that cheered the team onward.

Below : The 1997 Warrenton Warriors Girl's Softball Team. Top Row -Left to right : Mindy Simonsen, Jenny Forney, Stacey Johnson, Stephanie Moore, JoLee Sturgell, Ally Gramson. Middle Row: Allison Matilla, Tara Humphries, Emily Johnson, Nikki Haupt, Dionne Neahr. Third Row: Amanda Plummer, Wendy Bandeen, Coach Stacey Hannah. Fourth Row: Courtney Guenther and Rainie Comstock.

Below: Tara Humphries stands looking a little confused. Do you want something Tara? You got to speak up and make it snappy because you are going up to bat next. Hit a home run for the team, O.K.? That a girl!

Below: JoLee Sturgell and Saralee Stemper what are you watching? Why are your mouths hanging open? Oh, I know why, Wendy Bandeen just hit the ball so high up you are trying to see where it is going to land. Well, I hope that your necks don't get stuck that way because the ball is never going to come down. Wendy is a power hitter for the Lady Warriors.

Above: Wendy Bandeen slides into home and is called safe for the Lady Warriors and scores another run for the home team. They are lucky we have some fast runners other wise she might have been in a little bit of trouble. Did I mention, nice slide Wendy. Our Lady Warriors are'n't afraid to get down in the dirt. That's the best part, right girls?

TRACK & FIELD

Above: Krystal Schnieder what's wrong? Are you having technical difficulties or is that some special pose you're doing for the camera?

Track '97 was a great year full of stamina and distance. The Practices and meets were at the top of Warrenton's potential! We ran and threw things to the best of our ability. Ms. Rannow was so proud that we'd get pizza and ice-cream every once in a while it was a real treat! After a hard workout at districts going to the mall was a great reward Track is one fun sport to end the school season with!

Below: Hey Lily! What are you looking at? Are the runners or coach Teal heading your way? Make him proud, throw that ball far but, of course you will because you're the chest!

Above: He's going the distance, he's going for speed....! John Welch is going for the gold.... Maybe!

Below: Lily Higgins are you brown nosing or? Ms. Rannow just giving you some inspiration Above: Aaron Marshall! Tom Bosworth! What are you doing? You're supposed to be running on the track not in the middle of the field!

To the left: Sammy Claterbos that poles kind of big, are you thinking about using it in the Olympics? Aaron Marshall those pants, call the fashion police! Someone should tell him MC Hammer pants aren't coming back.

FROM START TO finish

To the left: Julianna is this one of your victory laps? The track teams own energizer bunny you keep going and going and going!

To the right: Kim Horn is Amy Hill dressing you? Is this some initiation to get into the chest club?

Above: Run Forrest! Run! ! Wait that's not Forrest, that's Brandon Manke. Who knew?!!?

Above: Ms. Rannow this is no time to gab with Mrs. Kennell you've got a team to coach!

Above: Josh why is that look of wonder on your face? Did you not get the time you wanted!

GOLF

Below: Daniel Sturgell and Chad Davis walk through the rain while heading toward the first tee before their match in Tillamook.

Below: The rain doesn't seem to be affecting Sam Bobel putting stroke after sinking a twelve footer for par.

Above: From the rough Charles Hansen snuggles one up and makes a par saving putt. With that form anything is possible, must be all that practice.

Above: Chad Davis thinks to himself :“Uh oh, that’s gonna be trouble”, while attempting a 5-iron shot to the green. Luckily, he was able to make a good come back, with a great chip shot through the trees.

Above: Stephanie Claterbos takes a few minutes after the evening performance to pose with her mom. I suppose that theateral interest runs in the family. Steph did a spectacular job in the play. It was a little unusual for her to be chasing after Sam, but I guess that's why they call it acting, right Steph.

Above: Dionne did a wonderful job making "Goo-Goo" noises to the prop baby. Is there something you're not telling us Dionne?

Above: Mollie Anderson, two words, how cute!

To the left: Carole Chase and Elijah Gannaway are sharing a spot of tea, My, how civil. It's too bad they don't get along that well in real

1997

Above: Whoa! Let him have it, Krystal! Daniel, are you crying? Just kidding, Krystal didn't really hit Daniel, right Krystal?

To the left: Lily Higgins, Elijah Gannaway, and Stephanie Claterbos chat for awhile, probably about the meaning of life or something equally as profound. Who is that stern looking man in the background? Golly, it's just a painting, but it's awfully life-like!

DRAMA 1996-97

To the left: Sam Bobek is worried, Daniel McGrath is confused, and Carole Chase is holding a baby! What's Going on? Well, don't worry, it isn't a real baby or a real gun. You guessed it, it's just another wild and crazy scene from Oh Promise Me.

Above: Nicole Balensifer is pondering something. Don't think too hard Nicole. Whoa, there's that creepy guy again. Nicole doesn't seem worried that he's giving her the eye.

To the left: Cris and Nikki Haupt were the newest addition to the drama club. They both appeared in the spring production of The Invisible Man. Cris did an outstanding job as the sheriff. I suppose he has some experience with the law. Nikki played "Roberta" an over enthusiastic journalism student.

To the left: Sam Bobek looks as if he is about to whine. Don't even think about it.

To the right: The entire cast takes a final bow. Congratulations on a job well done.

BAND

Below: Adam Bobek, Paul O'verby, Carrie Hartly, Ally Gramson, Jessica Lahaie, Amy Hill, and Jenny Forney are warming up to pump the crowd up with all that Warrior that we all have in us!

Below: Troy Bugean and Aaron Marshall seem to be taking a break from warming up their tunes. Troy must be trying to impress some chicks that standing at the door, or he just might be trying to impress Aaron!

To the Left: Dru you look like you are up to something. You must be. We know what you did, you burnt the pancakes at the pancake feed. Don't worry, we won't tell anyone if you don't.

To the Right: Here we have our one and only Jerimiah Scott. He is singing Frosty the Snowman while the band plays the song. You look really snazzy all dressed up, but then again you always look good!

To the Left Corner: Melissa Weaver, Erin St. John, and Tony Columbe are playing in the bands Christmas Concert. Melissa looks like she is ready for her cue.

To the Right Corner: Luke your looking kind of sad while Michelle has a nice sweet look on her face.

CHOIR

Left: Saralee blew us all away when she sang for us with her beautiful voice. Way to go Sara!

Right: Peggy Boisvert seems to be concentrating on her song, or she just might be looking at someone in the audience so she is not very nervous. Don't worry Peggy you did a good job. No complaints here!

Below: Here we have Elija Gannaway, D.J. Hoggard, Dan McGrath, Michael Boothe, and Chris Boyer. They all look like they are singing on the right key, but then there is Dan and Michael looking somewhat else. What's out there guys?

Below Right: Crystal Schneider, Heidi Terese, and Courtney Guenther are all making themselves look beautiful. They have many accessories. Heidi must have a hair out of place, and Courtney looks as if something is missing. It's O.K., you all look great.

Above: Mr. Ogren, you look very nice on this special occasion. You have been doing a very good job this year, and every year. You look as if you are confused! What's going on?

Right: Dionne Neahring, Raine Comstock, Maria Ferrell, Marah Gannaway, Stacey Johnson, Dru Mickelson, Melissa Hancey, and Courtney Guenther are all a main part of the choir. If it weren't for them, the choir just wouldn't be the same!

PROM

The theme of this year's prom was "Underneath The Stars" by Mariah Carey. The dance was held at the Masonic Lodge in Astoria on May 3rd. Lisa Lamping took pictures and Ultimate Enterprises Inc. from Portland deejayed the dance. After the initial butterflies of dinner settled down, and the "I can't dance" people started dancing, the party started Rockin'. Leading the way was a normally quiet and soft spoken guy, Steve Compton. The man went nuts. Steve inspired many a person to "GET UP AND DANCE!!!" as he so delicately put it. Anyway, most had a great time this year and went home anxiously awaiting next year's prom.

Right: Well, there they are. The King (Josh Wintersteen) and the Queen (Dena Borders) of the prom dancing together. It was Dena's 18th birthday tonight. What a way to spend such a special occasion. Happy birthday Dena! Congrats Josh! This is your dance buddy. The crown looks like it was made for you. The Evening was complete with the crowning of the king and queen and we're happy you two won the prize :-)

This year's Prom Court was as follows: Daniel Sturgell, Mindy Simonsen, his majesty Josh Wintersteen, the royal highness Dena Borders, Lindsay Stewart, and Charles Hansen.

Above: Chad Davis and his date San Nguyen. San, "you look marvelous" and I love your hair. Looking sharp in that tux Chad.

PROM

Below: The Three Amigos, Steve Compton, Dayna Plummer, and Kelly Liles. After a long year in yearbook it's about time you guy's went out and had a great time and there's no better place to do that than the prom. Love the tux Steve.

Above: Amanda Wolfe is groovin' to that funky beat. You go girl!

Above: Branden Manke! Didn't your mom ever teach you it's not polite to make faces at people? How rude!

Below: Thupten Tsering and his date Melissa Hancey are having a blast. They look so cute together.

Below: LOOK! It's a bird! It's a plane! It's Jeremie Bergerson moshing in the middle of the prom dance floor. The girls were quick to help launch him into the air. You the man Jeremie!

The Senior Guys From Left to Right: Top Row: D.J. To the left: is a picture of Mr. Wolfe who is probably grading some big test he gave to the poor, defenseless freshman. Well, you know what they say: No Pain, No Gain. Mr. Wolfe is the Varsity Baseball coach. His team won the State Title and I think he is very proud to be the coach.

To the right: is a picture of Mrs. Dick. She took time out of her life to pose for the camera so she had a for sure spot in this years Annual. She teach P.E., Health, and Aerobics. She is also the Varsity Girls Volleyball coach. Everyone on her team loves her target treats she gives out.

Up above to the left: is a picture of Mr. Ogren cleaning up after the W.H.S. band had their pancake feed to raise money for equipment, stands, etc. I wonder why he has that funny grin on his face? Where are all of his students also? I thought that they were suppose to help out too. Oh well, have fun Mr. Ogren.

Above: is a picture of Mr. Warren doing some funky dance. We are lucky because not every Wrestling coach or teacher dances around when they are happy. It is easier to get on their good side when we know they are happy. Hey, Mr. Warren, I think that Mr. Carrell and Mr. Mendes are making fun of you. That is O.K. as long as you are supporting your wrestlers.

To the left: is a picture of Mr. Dustin who has taken time to pose for the camera. He teaches Reading skills in the Freshman Rotation classes and he is also the Spanish teacher. He supports the after school activities and you can see him at most of the after school sport events. Isn't that nice of him to be there to cheer on the Warrenton Warriors no matter what the game is?

To the bottom right: is a picture of one of the wonderful janitors that clean the halls of Warrenton High School. This is Dave Wilson getting ready to clean after all of us students had a long, hard day of school. We owe them a great deal of thanks. I was joking about the hard day of school.

Below: is a picture of Mr. Porter smiling while somebody in Yearbook take his picture for this page. Mr. Porter is the Biology, Natural Resources and Geology teacher at W.H.S. If you have ever been in his room you could probably tell that he is into Star Trek and Sci-Fi. One of last years Freshman that was in his Biology class thought that his Buzz Lightyear was one of the best models hanging from his ceiling. If you have any questions ever about Star Trek or maybe a computer game, he will tell you his opinion. He is quite the science teacher. We are glad to have him.

FLASHBACK

These are some memories from the Freshman before and during their first year at Warrenton High School. Let's see what they have to say.

Molly Young remembers, "Back in fourth grade swimming lessons, when Richelle was hooked up with Bobek, she didn't want him to see her in her bathing suit because she thought she was too skinny. Throughout our Freshmen year, I bring this memory up to Richelle every day. It still gets me laughing!"

Richelle Garcia remembers, "That time in P.E. when Courtney and I were the # 1 Badminton player. We really did know who was # 1, and it wasn't us!"

Lisa Leavitt remembers, "In seventh grade when her, Shannon, Heidi, Jeff, Richelle, and some other people were all making animal noises in Ms. 'SPRINGERS' class and she couldn't figure out who was doing it. Ms. Springer was getting really mad and when she finally figured out who it was, she sent us all to the office."

Dionne Neahring remembers, "When Nikki and Ally got in a big chalk fight in Mr. Z's class. They were pushing each other, and when Mr. Zimetkin came into the room they almost knocked him over. Nikki some how got out of her detention!"

“HE SAID

Their attitudes.

-Scott Allen

They can never make up their minds.

-Matt Davis

When they try to act like they're 'all that'.

-Mike Davis

They're confusing and I don't understand them.

-Jon Elliot

When they talk about feminine products like a football game.

-Mike Jorgenson

When they don't have their priorities straight.

-Duane Shrode

“SHE SAID

Everything.

-Amanda Brim

When they think a good date is taking a girl to a gun range or paintballing.

-Kelly Watts

They talk back too much.

-Crystal Martin

When, instead of saying "hi" to you, they give you 'the nod'.

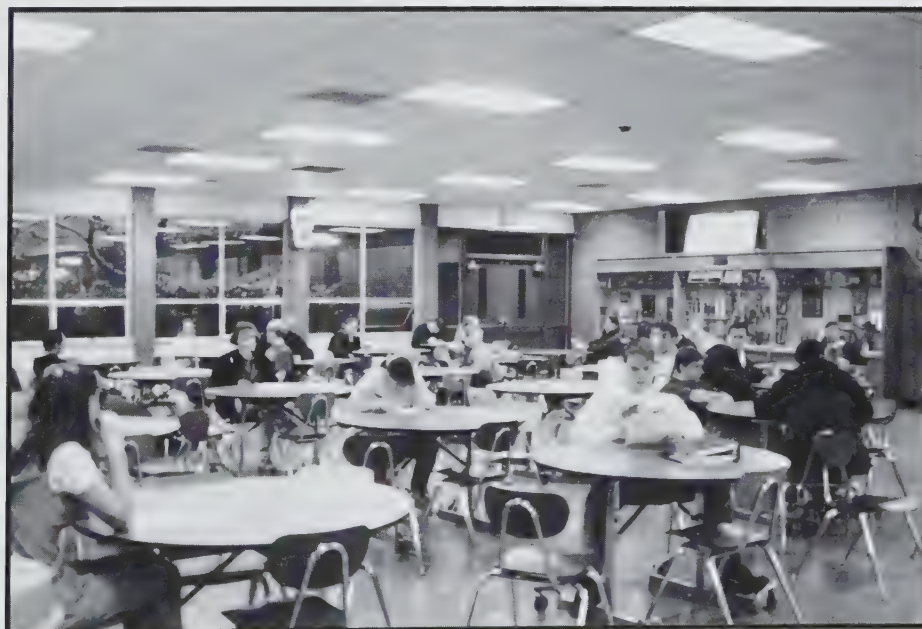

-Carole Chase

Their attitudes.

-Brook Fenley

What disgusts you the most about the opposite sex?

"The band trip to Canada." Josh Wintersteen, Joel Wills, Tracy Nelson, Sarah Oldridge, Cris Haupt and Brian Maltman

"Our camping trips in the back yard."
Mike Simonsen

"There's too many!"
Sam Bobek

"It's a toss up between Canada and the Sophomore Bonfire."
Amanda Wolfe

If you could change one thing about this school, what would it be?

"Make it start later than 8:00, it's too early."
Sangyel Sherpa

"The athletic policy."
Daniel McGrath

"Having constant heat in the school."
Mindy Simonsen

"The attendance policy and the attitudes of the school officials toward the students."

1997 Seniors

SENIOR SNAPS

Above: Julianna Morris and Tracy Nelson show us that they really are best of friends.

Left: Steve Compton finally shows us what he is really like. He takes us back to the early 80's when there was no such thing as fashion. This just happens to be one of those moments when he got tips from Krusty the Clown!

Below: Daniel Sturgell, Amanda Wolfe, and Tracy Nelson show us all a big Senior smile, but Lindsey Stuart seems to be paying more attention to someone else.

Left: Charles Hansen seems to be confused. He must be looking for the cookies. By the way, they're to the left!

Right: D.J. Hoggard looks to be having a little bit too much fun. So what is it that is so much fun?

Below: Mike Simonsen seems to be concentrating real hard on the game. Way to go Mike!

SENIOR PROPHECIES

April Ager: April invents glasses that make everybody look two inches tall.

Sam Bobek: Sam becomes the first Polish Justice of the Supreme Court. In his acceptance speech, he acknowledges that he owes all of his success to the Pope. Three days later, Sam mysteriously disappears in South America.

Dena Borders: Dena is the first person to win both best actor and actress for her roles in "Romeo and Juliet." Dena comments on her success, "It's not just that I love myself, it's part of the job."

Melanie Boyle: Little is known about this late addition to the Warrenton class of 1997, but rumor has it that she likes to tan.

Curtis Burnett: Curtis gets a job as a counselor at a children's camp under the alias of "Vern." He is later fired after he goes berserk, screaming at the kids, "Don't call me stupid."

Steve Compton: Steve fulfills his destiny by becoming the mayor of his own city, the "City of Compton."

Dale Doggett: Dale becomes the new detention supervisor at Warrenton High School. His comments on being selected for the position, "I've spent a lot of time in that room, I know how it should be run."

Jason Elliott: Jason joins the Sesame Street cast with his alter ego, Phil.

Elijah Gannaway: Elijah has a night mare and wakes up as Mrs. Gach.

Jarret Gleason: Jarret becomes Warrenton's first Fire Chief so he can take the fire truck for a spin whenever he wants without having to pull any fire alarms.

Charles Hansen: Charles uses his clean cut image to replace Mr. Rogers, but is later fired for illicit acts committed in "the neighborhood."

Shannan Harris: Shannan writes a self-help book for struggling teens entitled, 101 Ways to Cut Class, Get an Excused Absence, and Still Pass Your Classes.

Cris Haupt: Cris briefly hosts a home video show, but is arrested for impersonating Bob Saget.

Matt Hofman: Matt spends the rest of his life in search of his true last name.

D.J. Hoggard: D.J. is arrested for harassment, but counter charges with accusations of racism.

Sky Kleber: Sky becomes a motivational speaker professing, "The Sky's the Limit." She even helps Elijah get in touch with his feminine side.

Kelly Liles: Kelly finally finds all of his missing homework and is allowed to graduate.

Brian Maltman: Brian becomes a lifelong contestant on a dating game because he keeps choosing himself.

Jack McCarty: After 4 years in the military, Jack goes to college, gets a teaching degree and returns to Warrenton Grade School to take Mr. McGuire's place as Social Studies teacher.

Tully McDaniel: Tully finds a legitimate career in film after his breakthrough movie, White Men Can Jump.

Daniel McGrath: Dan gets thrown out of the military for bringing beer to a can food drive. In his defense statement he says, "Hey, it's in a can!"

SENIOR PROPHECIES

Nathan Miller: Nathan goes to Italy on vacation and is proclaimed Moussilini II.

Julianna Morris: Julianna becomes a track star at E.O.U. and sets several Olympic records proving she is not just another dizzy blond.

Tracy Nelson: Tracy opens a combination bakery and tanning salon called, "Tracy's Tarts and Tans."

Todd Norman: Todd writes a program for a computer game, sells it to Bill Gates and is able to retire before he turns 21.

Sam Normand: Sam returns from college and takes over Warrenton's businesses and fires all of the Warrentonians.

Sarah Oldridge: Sarah moves to South America to lead a group of militant amazons; their first victim, the elusive Sam Bobek.

Justin Puckett: Justin becomes a guard at the new Warrenton Juvenile Denention Facility.

Tonya Quashnick: Tonya tires of life on the catwalk; gives up her career as a model, and joins Sarah's Amazons in South America.

Nick Schaffer: Nick becomes the manager of the toy department at Freddie's where he no longer has to come up with excuses for playing with toys all day.

Sangyel Sherpa: Sangyel kidnaps Ben-the-Wonderdog and holds him captive until Mr. Warren learns how to correctly pronounce her name.

Mike Simonsen: Mike becomes the world yo-yo champion but is disqualified for mooning the judges.

Mindy Simonsen: Mindy, a law school graduate, rushes to her brother's aid. She successfully sues the yo-yo committee, regaining Mike's title, claiming he wasn't actually mooning the judges, he was only showing them some of his new tricks.

Tim Soto: Tim gains 400 pounds and moves to Japan where he becomes a famous sumo wrestler, Tim "Quasimodo" Soto.

Lindsay Stewart: After spending the last two years in track diving into the sand pits, Lindsay decides to move to California and become a Baywatch beach lifeguard.

Daniel Sturgell: Daniel makes millions as a defense contractor producing and selling a mysterious toxic gas that only he can concoct.

Thupten Tsering: Thupten joins the circus and high dives into coolers.

Nate Tussing: Nate, a.k.a. Medium Pace, puts his love of explosives to good use in his career as a movie demolitions expert.

Dan Williams: Dan creates and markets a new comic book hero, Silent Sam, who can subdue villains with only a whisper.

April Williamson: April uses her knowledge of used cars and music retail to create a new business - Musical Cars, where the customer is never really sure of what they will end up with.

Joel Wills: Joel becomes a famous restaurant owner/operator and fulfills a lifelong dream when he opens a posh eatery in Jackson's Hole, Wyoming called "Joel's Hole."

Josh Wintersteen: After a fun-filled year in English IV, Josh realizes his love for spelling and the English language. He takes this passion to his new job as a dictionary salesman.

Amanda Wolfe: Amanda finally meets Tom Cruise only to find out he has chronic halitosis (extremely bad breath).

SENIOR PICINIC

Mr. Hackwith and Jack McCarty seem to be having a conversation about Jack passing Algebra or not. Jack's weighing the option of getting Hack back for all the bad grades or graduating.

(Above) Nick Shaffer and Kelly Liles take a ride together. They must be doing some last minute bonding before we all have to say good-bye. Try not to cry, guys.

(Right) A great time was had by all!

(Below) Brian Maltman, one of the more brave guys, decides to try out the jet ski. Of course, being a Maltman, he was probably just showing off. Just kidding, Brian. Hope the water wasn't to cold!

CLASS OF 1997

Todd Norman is your average "Pepsi" man. His motto: Eat, drink "Pepsi", and relax.

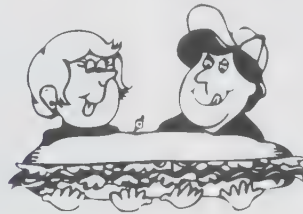

Lindsay Stewart and Curtis "Vern" Burnette look like "professional" volleyball players. Hey, Curtis, nice socks and shoes on a SAND volleyball court. What were you born in Oregon or something?

Dale Doggett, (left), shows us the football that the guys used to play football. They had to use the bigger one so they could catch it, and the girls were using the real one.

Thupten Tsering, (right), is showing us the technique of playing football and eating watermelon. Make sure you remember to throw the football and not the watermelon.

Josh Winterstien, (below), seems to be watching out for Hack while Juls beats Nathan Miller up.

BACCALAUREATE

Baccalaureate this year was at Calvary Assembly of God. It was a very inspiring night, with speakers that really touched hearts.

Among the speakers were Mrs. Gach, Doug Marshall, pastor at Warrenton Christian Church, Ron Cooper, pastor at Church of the Nazarene, Mark Kenny, pastor at North Coast Baptist Church, Chris Schauermaun, pastor at Philadelphia Church, and of course, Sam Seybold, pastor at Calvary Assembly of God.

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store from me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day." II Timothy 4:7, 8a.

Above: Melanie Boyle, April Williamson, Matt Hofman, and Kelly Liles watch Josh's devotion semi-intently. Wake up, you guys! It's not that bad!

Left: Jason Lambert, What on earth are you doing here? Oh, yeah, that's right. You are playing the song Chris Bergerson wrote for his cousin, Jeremie. "We'll miss him and we'll cry / We'll miss him but we'll try / To keep on livin'..." It's a beautiful song.

Right: Ron Cooper delivers the commencement sermon. It was very inspiring to teachers, parents, underclassmen, and graduating seniors alike. Hopefully it was not just inspiring, but it will be something that will be taken to heart and used throughout life.

Above: Josh Wintersteen gives his testimony. He did a very good job, and his speech was very touching. Good job, Josh! Below: Krystal Schnieder sings the song "Arms of Love" to our graduates.

AND RECEPTION

Above, Left: The senior girls who attended the Baccalaureate pose for one last picture together after the reception. They all look as though they were having a good time, except Julianna. Is it that she is a little apprehensive about what happens next, or is it that she just doesn't want to get her picture taken? Above: It looks as though we took Pastor Schauermann a little off guard, as Brian Maltman is talking to him. Are you looking for a little spiritual guidance, Brian? Or did his opening prayer just really inspire you? Left: Nathan Miller enjoys a little coffee with his cookies. All that listening must have made him really thirsty. Below, Left: Elijah Gannaway deep in thought? This proves, if there was ever any doubt, that there really is a God! Obviously, this doesn't happen too often! Below: Did Someone just tell a joke, or is Matt Hofman embarrassed to be seen with Cerissa Farrington? It must have been a joke, because Cerissa appears to be smiling, too.

GRADUATION

CLASS of 1997

This year's graduation was a very special and extremely emotional moment for the Class of '97 and their families. It was the final step in completing a long and sometimes difficult journey that most call childhood. The graduates have overcome many tough obstacles and endured neverending hardships to reach this pinnacle. Through the years, both as students and as individuals, these people have grown and matured to become fine young adults. They enter adulthood with a sense of accomplishment and a newly defined confidence that they will succeed in whatever they do. Everyone at WHS wishes the class of 1997 a heartfelt goodbye and congratulations on a job well done.

Below: As you can plainly see on Julianna Morris and Tracy Nelson, the class of 1997 was not in any hurry to leave.

CONGRATULATIONS GRADS

-The Graduating class of 1997- The unity and comradery of this group has never been captured quite so eloquently before. This occasion has ended many heated battles, increased feelings between friends, and has started what will surely prove to be a lasting bond between the men and women of the CLASS OF 1997.

GRADUATION

Above: Steve Compton is very happy to be graduating tonight. You'd better not get too excited to be getting out or you might miss when they call your name to get that all important diploma.

Below: Elijah Gannaway seems to be distracted. HEY ELIJAH! Better pay attention buddy or you might miss when they call your name to get your diploma. Just kidding. Congratulations man!

Above: Salutatorian Sarah Oldridge prepares to give her speech. You look like you are a little nervous there. Don't worry about it. Sarah, you are only talking to the hundreds of audience members, friends, and family that will be listening to every word you say.

GRADUATION

CLASS OF 1997

Below: Daniel Sturgell has waited a long time for this moment. The expression on his face tells all.

Above: Dena Borders is looking forward to getting her diploma.

CLASS OF 1997

GRADUATION

Below: Josh Wintersteen can sense the end of his WHS days as he waits for his diploma.

Below: Class Valadictorian Sam Bobek gives a motivational speech to the Seniors and to the audience.

Above: Tim Soto and Jason Elliot have talked the talk and now they have walked the walk. Way to go you guys!

YEARBOOK STAFF

Above: Steve's working hard to complete a layout, but wait who's this? That's strange. It's Kelly Liles, he's usually never in class!

Putting
The Pieces
TOGETHER

Deadlines will motivate
some and enslave others.
The choice, is truly up to the individual.
- Dayna Plummer

To the left Steve and Dayna have just found new hatred for the computer. Steve has given up and Dayna looks about ready to attack the darn thing.

Below: Brittney Manke is pretending to work. While Lisa Leavitt, Kris Thornhill, and in the far back Brian Maltman are actually producing quality work.

Below: Amanda Wolfe & Den Borders are resolving an argument with a game of paper, rock scissors.

Above: It's the editors Steve & Dayna. Their expressions represent their moods from the first quarter to the fourth.

Below: Mr. Carrell the yearbook supervisor. Doing what he does best, adding papers to the year long collection on his desk.

Above: Dena Borders. She smiles because she has no idea what is going on.

Above: Kris Thornhill, Mandi Witte, and Kris McDonald participate in the typical activities of the yearbook class, game of solitaire and the latest update on the hottest gossip.
